

Quacera 'D' List Report June 8, 2016

One of the best ways to make money in the Stock Market is to avoid losing it. We present here our 'D' list for those looking for a disciplined process that delivers an unbiased sell decision point. When a trend goes negative it's an alert that selling has increased and it may be time to reduce a position or for an opportunity to sell short. The most difficult decision in the investment process is on the sell side because we tend to fall in love with our choices which leads to a reluctance to let them go. If you are looking to sell the worry is missing future profits. If you want to get short, the risk of being wrong is literally infinity while the maximum gain is the selling price. The QPM Radar™ System is designed to help investors or traders find an unbiased decision point, one removed from opinions and emotions. Since early April the market has been positive on a macro basis and the shorts have been taking a hit. Despite that, our Composite list of Stocks and ETFs demonstrates that there is a large segment of the market to avoid.

Data in this report is taken from sources deemed to be reliable. Calculations of signal averages are based on the date of each signal and are not annualized.
